more than just office furniture

CONFIDENCE

Ensuring your office runs smoothly depends on productive, happy and professional staff communicating with their colleagues as efficiently as possible.

At Source One, we are confident we can help you gain maximum efficiency and productivity through ensuring your office environment meets the needs of your business not just today, but for the future.

Our experience, drawn from many years of recommending and developing work place environments specialises in creating solutions to suit your specific business needs in which you can be confident will work for you. We have advised many companies with their office reconfigurations, office moves and taking on extra staff who need to be sited within an existing framework of personnel. We have a portfolio of references which can be requested at any time.

SIMPLICITY

Working with Source One is effortless, our aim is to give you the CONFIDENCE in us, from our PERSONAL service and total COMMITMENT, to allow you to make considered choices from our recommendations.

It is SIMPLICITY itself.

Source One, provides Office Interiors Solutions, using our expertise to deliver real benefits to your business.

PERSONAL

Understanding your business and listening to our clients needs, we believe, forms the most vital part of an office interiors solution.

We will invest time in understanding your objectives and provide a personal approach to build a working relationship between us.

We aim to make a project as relaxed and fun as possible whilst ensuring complete efficiency and satisfaction throughout the time spent, whether the project is for 1 new workstation or a complete refurbishment.

Source One can provide you with a balance of consultancy, project management and overall support. Under usual conditions these services are FREE OF CHARGE.

COMMITMENT

At Source One we view all projects with equal standing. Our commitment to our clients is an assurance that you will receive the highest level of continuous support whether your requirement is for 1 chair, 100 workstations or a total office fit out.

A premium service to our clients has and always will be our commitment which we believe is never compromised.

we recommend,
you decide...
